TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

About this trip

Rip across the Vietnamese mountains on a motorbike taking in the sounds, smells and tastes of Asia's most vibrant country. You'll be accompanied all the way by your fellow riders and a support truck loaded with water, snacks and a mechanic. You'll cross narrow bridges, race down highways, shoot over winding mountain passes and ride through tiny villages with stilt houses.

Hanoi

The charming and chaotic city of Hanoi will be your base at the start and end of the trip. We'll ride through its crazy traffic, indulge in its street food and have a few cheeky beers at the local bia hoi.

Ha Giang

Touching the Chinese border, Ha Giang is the most remote province in Vietnam. We'll take our bikes through its beautiful countryside before riding along the devastatingly beautiful Ma Pi Leng Pass lined with black limestone cliffs.

Sapa & Dien Bien Phu

The rice terraces of Sapa are most spectacular when you're riding through them. We'll spend a day climbing the mountains before over-nighting and heading to the battlesite of Dien Bien Phu. The town where the Vietnamese won their first victory against the French.

Mai Chau & Ninh Binh

Mai Chau and Ninh Binh both have fantastic scenery. Mai Chau is full of mountain passes and Ninh Binh full of limestone karsts. We'll spend a night in Mai Chau with ethnic minority tribes in a traditional stilt house.
