Live A Larger Life Tour – Morocco 2025

18-day small group adventure

Casablanca – Chefchaouen – Meknes – Fes – Midelt – Erg Chebbi – Desert
Merzouga – Dades Valley – Ait Benhaddou – Marrakech – Essaouira

Day 1: Arrive Casablanca: We will be met at the airport and transferred to our hotel located on the beach in Casablanca. Free time to wander the Ain Diab Corniche lined with restaurants, beach & swimming pools. Perhaps in the evening, mingle with your fellow travelers', our hotel lends itself to the sunset of Morocco.

Day 2: Casablanca - Rabat – Chefchaouen: After breakfast we begin our Moroccan journey with a visit to the famous Hassan II Mosque with its ornate rooms, masterfully tiled floors and intricately carved wooden ceilings. This is one of the most awe-inspiring mosques ever seen. Later we drive north along the coast to the historical town of Rabat, to visit the Oudaya Kasbah on route, and then continue north to the city of Chefchaouen, locally known as the blue pearl. Hidden high up in the Rif Mountains of northeastern Morocco, Chefchaouen is a historical town known for the striking, variously hued blue-washed buildings of its picturesque medina and views.

Day 3: Chefchaouen: One of the prettiest places in Morocco.. We will explore the streets and the kasbah, have lunch at a local restaurant and admire the panoramic view. In the afternoon there's time to shop for handicrafts woven by local women, hike the Rif mountains or simply sit at a café and enjoy. In the afternoon perhaps hike to the Spanish mosque for a spectacular sunset.

Day 4: Chefchaouen – Volubilis – Meknes - Fes : This morning get into your comfy shoes and get ready for an outdoorsy day full of exciting historical sites. Firstly, we walk the ruins of the historic and impressive Heritage city – Volubilis. We then head to the former capital of Morocco – Meknes, test our tastebuds with a camel burger for lunch and discover the medina of Meknes. In the afternoon making our way to discover the charming streets of Fez.

Day 5: Fes: After breakfast a walk with our local guide visiting the Quaraouine Mosque founded by Fatima el Fihria in 859 and the Andalussian Mosque dating back to 860. We discover the twisting streets and alleyways, passing donkeys piled high with goods and explore the specialty sections alive with craftsmen, markets, tanneries overlooking the dye pits. Fes is the spiritual and cultural heart of Morocco – vibrant, noisy, fascinating and overwhelming. It is feast for the senses, with a huge well-preserved medieval old city that is the mother of all medinas.

Day 6: Fes - Midelt: Midelt nestles in the foothills of the High Atlas Mountains. This small town and it's majestic setting. We will do a short hike in the region, see the nearby Canyon and spend time in the village. Midelt was in the past known for the caravans used to leave loaded with food, for Timbuktu. Kick back enjoy time, perhaps a game of soccer as the sun sets with the kiddies. Our meal is included tonight.

Day 7: Medilt - Merzouga: We drive across the Eastern part of the high Atlas Mountains. Scenic landscapes along the way, including the Ziz Valley and gorges. We'll make a stop in Erfoud, known for its fossil workshops and desert surroundings. Continue the journey to arrive in Merzouga on the edge of the Sahara Desert. Time to relax by the pool and take in the views of the Sahara sands while preparations are made for our evening meal

Day 9: Exploring Sahara desert of Merzouga: Today we will begin a 4 x 4 Desert tour, enjoying the beautiful landscapes, we pass through the gravestones of Taouz and then head to discover the Gnawa music of Khamilia. Later we will head to the heart of the Sahara desert where we will be met by the nomads and discover the authentic Sahara desert life by camel riding the Erg Chebbi dunes – a vast sea of shifting wind-swept sand that's formed into picturesque, undulating crests and valleys. We will admire the most magic sunset and our local friends will prepare our evening meal so all you'll need to do is sit back and relax enjoy the stars, reflect on the experience you will never forget and finally fall asleep for the night in a luxury tent in the Sahara.

Day 10: Merzouga - Dades Valley: Wake up to a spectacular sunrise over the golden sand dunes of the Sahara. Today it is onwards to the Dades Valley. On today's journey we will learn about the underground irrigation system known as "Khetara" which consists of an intricate network of underground canals that provide water to the agricultural fields in the valley. This area has two extremes.
